CLOSE UP/ZOOM OUT -

by teatreBLAU and Bürgerbühne Kleist Forum

International Community Dance, Theatre and Film Workshop

MONDAY, AUGUST 31 – SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 05, 2020

Studiobühne at

Kleist Forum, Frankfurt (Oder), Platz der Einheit 1, 15230 Frankfurt (Oder)
Brandenburg, Germany

What do we work on?

How does a dictatorship come about? Can we prevent it from happening to us / here / again? What makes you leave your home country? How do you feel about where you live now? What does it even mean to be 'at home'?

CLOSE UP/ZOOM OUT is a project that explores these questions using dance, theatre, performance, music, text, video and film.

We are looking for interested people (ages 16 and above) to take part in our workshop for 1 week and to join us in a performance on stage.

If you love dance or theatre or film; if you have experience of migration or leaving home or dictatorship or if not, if you have always wanted to perform on stage and would like us to show you how, then this workshop is for you!

ALL NATIONALITIES WELCOME! ALL GENDERS WELCOME! ALL LANGUAGES WELCOME!*

If interested please email us; porst@teatreblau.eu
Furthermore you can also send us a short Video of yourself answering the following questions:

- Who are you?
- Where are you from?
- Why is this project important to you?

نحن نتطلع الى الاستماع منك

Esperamos con interés escuchar de usted
Wir freuen uns von Euch zu hören
We look forward to hearing from you!

*The main language for this workshop will be English. But the workshop leaders speak German, Spanish, Arabic, French, Italian, Dutch and can help with translation.

Teachers will be :

Arne Pohlmeier, Great Britain/Germany, Theater
Santiago Stankovic, Argentina/Spain, Video and Photo
Andrea Cruz, Chile/Spain, Dance
Jol Alholo, Syrien/Holland, Dance and Percussion
Marc de Pablo, Spain, Dance

Participation is free. You must provide your own travel. Accommodation can be provided upon request.
